IR WERKLY LANCASTER GAZI

NEW SERIES-VOL. 2:NO. 12.

LANCASTER, OHIO, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 27, 1854

WHOLE NO. 1505

The Lancaster Gazette.

CITY OF LANCASTER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING. T. S. SLAUGHTER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

TERMS-$1,50 per annum in advance. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

One Square, 10 lines (or less) three insertions

Thursday Evening, July 20, 1854

SHOWERS. BY THE REV. BALPH HOYT, A. M. In a valley that I know,-Happy scene?
There are meadows sloping low,
There the fairest flowers blow,
And the brighest waters flow

All serone; But the awestest thing to see If you ask the dripping tree, Or the harvest hoping swalu, Is the rain.

Ah the dwellers of the town,
How they sigh,
How ungratefully they frown
When the cloud king shakes his crown,
And the pearls come pouring down
From the sky!
They deery no charms at all
Where the sparkling jewels fall,
And each moment of the shower
Seems an hour.

Yet there's something very sweet Yet there's something very sweet In the sight,
When the crystal currents meet, in the dry and dusty street,
And they wreatle with the heat,
In their might!
While they seem to hold a talk
With the stones along the walk,
And remind them of the rule,
To 'keep cool!"

But in that quiet dell,
Ever fair,
Still the Lord doth all things well,
When his clouds with blessings awell,
And they break a brimming shell
On the airl
There the shower bath its charms,
Sweet and welcome to the farins,
As they listen to its voice,
And rejoice.

TRUST IN GOD AND PERSEVERE. Why so sad, Earnest? said a young wife to her husband, affectionately twining her arm around his neck, and kissing

He looked up with a smile and replied: 'I am almost out of heart, Mary. I think of all pursuits, a physician's profession is the worst. Here I have been, week after week, month after month, and I may soon unteer in a celabrated case, and so make himself known; but a physician must sit patiently in his office, and, if unknown, see men of half him acquirements rolling in men of half him acquirements rolling in wealth, while he perhaps is staying. And wealth, while he perhaps is staying. wealth, while he perhaps is starving. And it will soon come to that,' added he bitterly, 'if I do not get employment.'

An unbidded tear stole into his wife's eye, but she strove to smile as she said: 'Do not despond, Earnest. I know you have talents and learning to make your way as soon as you get a start; and depend upon it,' she said with a cheerful look, that will come when you least expect it.'

So you have told me, often told me, but the lucky hour has never come, said the husband despondingly. And now every cent of our little fortune has been expended and our credit will soon be gone, when it able money about the house. become of us?"

spirit, and the voice of hope is no longer heard within. His wife would have given way to tears if she had been alone; but she

'And what if every cent is gone? Have olis. no fear that we shall starve. God sent ravens to Elijah, and he will yet interpose for your aid. Trust in him, dear Earnest.' The husband felt rebuked as she thus spoke, and answered less despondingly:

But realy, Mary, this want of success would try the stoutest spirit. The me-chanic, the day laborer, the humblest farroom with rapid strides.

spair, but his young wife cheered and encouraged him—though sometimes her own heart seemed ready to give up. Mary Linwood was, indeed, that greatest of all blessings, a good wife; she sympathised blessings, a good wife; she sympathised with her husband, economized to the ut most, and by her sanguine words chased despondency from his heart

Hour after hour she sat there awaiting is now estimated at 53,000.

Scripture which taught this doctrine and he sate few had no opinion therefore on the subject. Two or three others of the family were at the free settlers.

A Fourt Mills as received an order taked, but hopes were entertained, by last ackel, but hopes were ente chance depended on a new and difficult operation which none of the other physicians had ever performed. Luckily I had assisted at one when a student. I stated what I thought could be done. The old resolutions; so, when he heard the others say they could do nothing for him, he de-termined to commit himself to me. I succeeded beyond my hope; even the other parting he put a roll of notes into my hand. Mary was in tears long before her husband had finished his narrative; but her heart went in thankfulness to God for having interposed just at the crisis when hope

From that day Earnest Linwood was a made man. The fame of his skillful operation was in every man's mouth, and by the aid of his patient, who now became his patron, he stepped at once into practice a-mong the best families of the place. Wealth cus, and assistant in a menagerie, a temas well as reputation flowed in upon him; perance lecturer, a tin peddler, and editor but he always attributed his success to his of a Nativist paper in Philadelphia—he wife, whose affection, he said, had cheered found himself in New York with just monand sustained him when out of heart.

for this life depends on her. If she is desponding your sanguine spirit catches the infection; but if she is full of hope and enous.

It she is full of hope and enous. ergy, her smiles will cheer you in the darkest hours, and enable you to achieve what you first thought to be impossibilities. yet without success. A lawyer may volunter in a celabrated case, and so make happiness, depends chiefly on our wives.—

the permany such measure. Mr. Yates, of Illinois, might add:
petrator of the wrong will meet his desasked him whether he spoke for himself or seek eat Our success in this world, as well as our

> IMPORTANT BURGLARY.—We are informed by Wm. Flannigan that on last > night about 10 o'clock, three burglars > forced their way into the dwelling house of forced their way into the dwelling house of John Abernathy, near Adelphia in this county, and after gagging and binding him hand and foot in his bed and securing the silence of his wife and a young widow la. silence of his wife and a young widow la- ferriting out the scoundrel, and they have but a cabinet officer, -appointed by the dy named Strauser, who lived with them, no doubt got the man. Solomon identifies Executive, chosen in no sense by the peo-by threats of instant death in case they him without a doubt. Merrill has long ple, and not responsible to them,—must raised the alarm, they proceeded to give been regarded as a desperate fellow. They also say aye, and sign his approval ere apthe house a thorough search.

Mr. Abernathy is a wealthy man and has been in the habit of keeping consideris found we do not pay. What then is to bers got everything of value, but Mr. A cannot even approximate the amount of hi Earnest was in a mood that the sanguine loss. Mrs. Struser lost one hundred dolsometimes experience when disappoint-ment after disappointment has crushed the in the Valley Bank for two hundred dollars, which we hope the thieves will present for payment. No clue to the perpetrators of this high handed act has been obtained .felt the necessity of sustaining him, and an-awered cheerfully; The family can give no description of them that can be relied upon. -- Chillicothe Metrop-

PERUSING OLD PAPERS.—How depressing is the overlooking of old papers long locked up, and filed away, written many years ago, when the world was brighte than now, before misfortune had dimmed the one, or death had snatched away the other! Nor are one's spirits made more mer, is sure of his food and raiment; but I cheerful, when some old document or letter have spent years in study, have waisted transports us backward to a season of besides waiting for practice, and now, reavement, or sad mischance. The sunwhen all my fortune is gone, if I resort to shine of the present is clouded by these other means of livelihood, I lose all that I reminiscences which produce in all their have spent, both time and money, and gloom the shadows of a former day. But, must forever abandon my profession. It when it happens as is most commonly the is too bard! and he arose and walked the fact, that a day of darkness and storm is His wife sighed and remaind silent.

His wife sighed and remaind silent.

But after a moment or two, she arose, went up to him, and fondly encircling him

Scenes, the sombre skies above us mingle garet; who was the sister of Henry the Eighth; who was the son of Henry the Seventh; who was the son of the Earl of Rich-letter received by a friend from a daughter, in her arms, said:

Dear Earnest, you must not worry yourself so. You think it painful for me to bear poverty, I know, or you would not in a cloudless day with the sun shining in in of Richard the Second; who was the home:

little girl, their only servant, sppeared aroused upon this subject, and with one at this crisis and said that the doctor was accord they seem determined to make this tonian democrat, writes from Kansas Tor- when you have a baby sister in the house, and temperate young man, committed sui-young physician had received, though he Rev. F. M. Haywood was recently secretly, and the pro-slavery men are swarmhad resided in the village more than a year.

The place, too, was large and populous, but medical men of large practice resided there, and all these combined to put down their meither assert nor deny that God foreknew had recently secretly, and the pro-slavery men are swarm-ing over the country, before those who are the country, before those who are sox. late Deputy Warden of the Penitent of the and all these combined to put down their neither assert nor deny that God foreknew charges the Indian Department at Washrival. More than once, heretofore, Earnest would have abandoned the field in despair, but his young wife cheered and enspair, but his young wife cheered and enspair his defence that his mother was next attacked, but his defence that her husband, yet still he came not. At length darkness set in, and she began to feel uneasy. She was about to go to the door, when she heard her husband's feet on the step, and hurrying out she met him in the hall.

'God bless you, Mary, an angel as you are, were his first words. 'If it had not here for you I should have given us less that he knows him well that he is the force employed in the came not. At length of the Anom Garmen.—

Biography of the Anom Garmen.—
In as much asit is customary to give biographies of "distinguished persons," the Mew York Times taking the frauds recently developed in that city for a text, tells some plain, and it may be unpalatable truths in regard to extraval and gives us a very spicy idea of a part of the force employed in the editorial department of that widely circulated Journal.—

Biography of the Anom Garmen.—
In as much asit is customary to give biographies of "distinguished persons," the Mew York Times taking the frauds recently developed in that city for a text, tells some plain, and it may be unpalatable truths in regard to extraval and gives us a very spicy idea of a part of the force employed in the editorial department of that widely circulated Journal.—

The New York Times the New York Leader thus "takes off" the ditorial corps of the Tribune. He uses about equal parts of truth and spitefulness, and gives us a very spicy idea of a part of the force employed in the editorial department of that widely circulated Journal.—

The New York Times the New York Leader thus "takes off" the ditorial corps of the Tribune. He was about equal parts of truth and spitefulness, and gives us a very spicy idea of a part of the force employed in the editorial department.

The Homestean Bill.—"Inspector" of the N. Y. Courier, writes from Washington to a sound a part of the New York Leader thus "takes off" the distorial corps of the Tribune.

The New York Leader thus "takes off" the distorial corps of the Curier in the New York Leader thus "takes off" the occasion the New York Leader thu been for you, I should have given up long a Scotchman by birth and is now forty-five tract merely to show one view of the case, ago, and now my fortune is made.'

Breathless with anxiety to hear all, yet although he goes by the appelation of Orr, which was that of his step father. His dition, Mary hurried her husband into her little sitting room, where the teathings were it is step of equestrians, and attracted attention.

having brought on a fit of dyspepsia by eat-ing too heartly of Welsh rabbits, he disappeared one night, leaving a few debts behind him as tokens of his affections, among his parishioners, and taking with him, by Governor is a man of iron nerve and quick way of remembrance the pewter tankard, which had been employed in the church

He made his way for the nearest sea-port; which was Bristol, where he shipped physicians acknowledged my skill; and as cook on board a vessel bound for Jamaithere now nothing but care required to ea, and on his arrival in that island he a make my patient as well as ever. On gain assumed the functions of a preacher: but finding that the Baptist persuasion was more popular than the Methodist, he joined

How long he remained in Jamaica is not known, but probably not long, for he taught a dancing school in the town of McGraws-Joe Smith went to Illinois, he turned his face toward the Atlantic States, and, after having been by turns check-taker at a cir
The silvering of mirrors is perform undue advantage; so that he is left to do his fighting in the Tribune, and mornify the his fighting in the Tribune, and morni a faithful wife, under God, our weal or woe in trade he commenced the Angel Gabriel line of business, which has proved so high-

found him ssleep, with a heavy bowie knife propriations for needed improvements of and a brace of pistols on the floor by his great harbors or rivers can be madel—

An accomplice has also been arrested as appears by the following:

Rochester City Line, was arrested here this morning, charged with being an accomplice of Merrill in kidnapping Solomon Northrop. He admitted that he was at "Never have we heard of such direct the Inaugural in Washington in 1841 .- and open interference on the part of the know who Victoria is, "whar she cum And what a state of things is here exhibit from," &c., &c., will please glance over ed! The President and Cabinet at Wash the following programme:

who was grandson of George the Second; result, and carry out its behests, charged, who was the son of PrincessSophia; who was it is believed, with the means of corrupting the cousin of Anne; who was the sister of Wil-the members of the Legislature. Governliam and Mary; who was the daughter and son in law of James the Second; who was upon the ground, and hired agents, a sort the son of Charles the First; who was the of Swiss corps, are here, to brow-beat, son of James the First; who was the son of coax, and buy support for the Cabinet nomselected for this melancholy review of past Mary; who was the grand daughter of Marinees." tles upon the mind. Beware of this: let no mond; who was the son of Catharine, the nine years old, who is now at a boarding wanted in a great hurry. With an exulting smile his wife ran for his hat, and then sat down with a beating heart to await his return.

It was almost the first summons the sacord they seem determined to make this form Kansas Torwitory to a member of Congress, that Sender and the weather proving fastor Atchison is urging the slavery propagatory forward to take early possession of the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

These appeals, he says have been circulated the most desirable locations.

The most desirable to make the same than any yet ritory to a member of Congress, that Sender the most desirable to make the same than any yet that is good enough for a boy. You must excuse me for writing so much about boys; and the member of Congress, that Sender the most desirable to make the same than any yet that is good enough for a boy. You must excuse me for writing so much about boys; and the member of Congress, that Sender the most desirable to make the same than any yet that is good enough for a boy. You must excuse me for writing so much about boys; and the member of spreading poison. What is the use of wasting words on our system of business—on excessive credit—on ficilious negotise. wasting words on our system of business—on excessive credit—on ficitious negotiations, so long as vainand silly wives are urging on their vainer and sillier husbands to this all-devouring ruin! The cure is needed at home; and, until our domestic vices are reformed, we are whistling down

the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the wind in every effort made to rectify the
the committee on Commerce without any
the Committee on Commerce without any
the Committee monstrous error. A great part of this tre- also, a military editor; and we never read mendous evil is due to our women. It is one of his articles on the Eastern war, with- length touched soundings and reached a very frequently leaving part of the mail for hard to think it—harder to write it—but, out the most profound astonishment. He nevertheless, it is plain, honest truth.— knows more of the proper military movements than all the Generals of Russia, and ments than all the Generals of Russia, and duties. But the more powerful featiers. their silks, wines, carpets, hangings and the Allied Powers. From the first, it has duties. But the more powerful faction, equipages—and in them are swallowed up been evident that he alone knew how the and the rising lights of the party, as Dougthe millions that are reported in our finan- war should be conducted, and that he could las, Hunter and Brown, are resolved upon cial disasters. Psalms for their souls- either repulse Russia or conquer Turkey, the defeat of the bill. The purpose of the cinnati suspended or abolished. In conliturgies of sorrow-requiems of death- We have wondered that he was not sent for President to veto it is now almost univeranything in the way of thunder and lightn- at once, and made commander-in chief, ei- sally conceded. ville a few years ago, after which he became a convert to Mormanism; but when Joe Smith went to Illinois, he turned his

PASSED ONE HOUSE .- The bill has passed the House, but even should it get through the campaign." or ey enough in his pocket to purchase a the Senate, we fear the veto of the weak the brass trumpet and with this for his stock tool at the head of the Government. The temper of the Administration may be judg-

"When the River and Harbor Appropriation bill was up in the House, Mr. Barks-The story of the kidnapping of Sor-omon Northaor many years since, and clared it to be the unalterable purpose of his sale into slavery excited great inter- the Administration to set its face against side. The arrest has caused great excite- This is a species of 'Democracy' which will hardly be appreciated upon the lake shores, and the great rivers of the West."

Albany, July 10.—J. L. Russell, captain of the canal-boat J. F. Croin, of the Rochester City Line, was arrested here porter, the organ of the Burke faction of the Democratic party, says:

He was ironed and taken to Balston Spa National government, nor such gross and palpable corruption, as has been manifest-ed in this city since the commencement of Who Victoria Is.—People who wish to the present session of the Legislature.-

ington not only attempted to dictate to the people of this State whom they shall elect Victoria is the daughter of the Duke of as Senators to represent them in Congress, Kent who was the son of George the Third; but it sends on its agents to influence the such things when she loves. A crust of bread, a log cabin, would be preferable to me if I shared it with you, to a place with any other. But it will not come to this.—Something within assures me that you will yet be great and rich. Have patience only a little while longer. There, there is a knock at the door, it may be for you.

As if her words had been prophetic, the little girl, their only savyant arreased. Kansas.—Mr. Abelard Guthrie, a Ben- while there is a boy baby in the house; but

He says:

Breathless with anxiety to hear all, yet not unmindful of his probable waried condition, Mary hurried her husband into her disting room, where the teathings were hid, and began to pour out the refreshing beverage with a trembling hand, while Earnest told the story of his day's absence. If found, said he, I was sent for by old many of acrobats, with whom he visited conting any of acrobats, with whom he visited some of the principal towns of England, when I gotthere, I learned, to my surprise, that the Governor had been thrown from his carriage and was thought to be dying. All the physicians of the town had been sent for, one after another, but none could aid him. In despair his wife, without or drawn of acreates and her with the man of the town had been sent for, one after another, but none could aid him. In despair his wife, without or drawn of area and a surprise of the transportation of good and surprise of the visit of the states, standed in yeather, which are group looking not like a great white wisc edgered on a service of the 'dear group looking not like a great white will and the state provise of the same and the many reckless purmuits of speculating like. The visit none to the same and a stant Liverpool, where he fell in love with the daughter of the physicians of the town had been sent for, one after another, but none could aid him. In despair his wife, without or dear of the town had been to the physicians of the town had been how much better he would have conducted

A Cool Spor.—The Troy Whig of the workmen having certain-indications in-Wednesday says. "On Monday last, snow forming them whether the sheet is in a lay on the Green Mountains, east of Bur-properly prepared state or not. When all subject that addresses itself to every citiington. The peaks of the mountains were is right, the edge of a sheet of paper or zen along this whole line of the road we

What a little variation of Byron, we Sook out (more often sought than found.)

Afrecess' spot, for thee the best,
Then look around, and choose thy ground,
And take thy rest.

the usual opening business, Senator Hun-ter, of Virginia, moved that the Senate even after the glass has been lifted and set take up the Diplomatic Appropriation on edge, small quantities continue to coze in the United States Court, against Col Mr. Gwin made an effort to prevail on the adheres to the back, and the mirror is form- for an alleged defalcation, has been made Senate to proceed with the homestead Bill. ed. Mr. Bright, of Indiana, moved to take up the Texas Debt Bill' which was agreed to, and after a brief debate it was forther postponed. The consideration of the Homestead Bill was then resumed: Senator Mason sustained his amendment with a tity of baggage and stores. He then retreated towards the City of Mexico; but the soldiers of Alvarez were stationed at Theidea conveyed by Mr. LeClaire, is that Whereat the administration papers set up favorable points along the route, and were determined to rid the country of him and Keokuk—means the "westchful fox," Ke- in justice to an injured man, as extensively his government, by cutting him off and de- okuk being a Fox Indian, or "he that goes noticed. stroying his army.

PRINTER CONSPIRACY .- At Philadelphia, on the 11th, Mr. BIRNEY, of the Register, having set two girls at work in his job office, they being desirous of learning the trade, the Typographical Union interfered to prevent it, and induced the members of the Union in the Register office to leave .-Several were held to bail. The next day one of the printers, slightly inebriated, entered the composing room of that paper with a cat under one arm and a rat trap under the other. He comically inquired if there were any rats about.

In reference to the great fraud of the Schuylers, New York, the Journal of Commerce says that their liabilities amount to assets amounts to $500,000 or sufficient Inq.

ATMr. John Anderson, a very steady

the force employed in the editorial depart-ment of that widely circulated Journal—

the way as expeditiously as possible. Mr.

Broadhead took advantage of the occasion to make almost a profession of Knownothde says:

"We saw the other day, in Brady's dathrowing out of any new temptation to for-commanders on both sides, by showing little mercury, until the latter to a certain how much better he would have conducted degree amalgamates with the tin. A large of the C. W. and Z. Railroad were taking white for miles. Persons not yet decided where togo during the summer season, need not be long in deciding to what quarter to take up their course."

What a little variation of Byron, we tirely covered by heavy weights, for the purpose of expelling all the mercury except that which has combined with the tin foil, and in this state it is allowed to remain, the mercury has drained off. In the case of He however withdrew his motion. out. When the plate is lifted, the tin foil Collector at San Francisco,

SANTA ANNA IN TROUBLE .- A letter to Wisconsin and Illinois, beyond the Missis- dicated from a base and unfounded calumthe Boston Times, written on board the U. sippi, they exclaimed, "Here is the place" ny. It will be remembered that Col. Con-S. sloop-of-war Portsmouth, in the Pacific, states that Santa Anna has been completely mology differs somewhat from the signifieverywhere."-Iowa State Journal.

the house it was found that the woman her-should be made of the finest and softest material possible, material that will easily dispose itself into folds, fallnig gracefully around her, and not, by being liable to be veils are usually blue or green. The lata stiffattitude and starched demeanor, denying her luxury of lounge and roll; why my very words would grow prim and precise, were I to wear a dress which depended on flour and potato for its propriety."

market, and many eastern buyers have sender of the infernal machine to M wocks, but no buyers. Small lots are sel-ling at from 25c to 35.

SE THE APPROL OF "CHINERADROD."

TERS A MUMMEN

This a mutum; what how funny, The the strangest Ching. That such creatures, with each features, Once were born to sing!

This a mammy! black and gummy? Bluss met how it looks! Born for thinking, enting, drinking, And for rending tooks!

Did you event No! I nover: it is truly more the Egyptien leather, tunned in weather, Ages gone before, upon, would prefer seeing the whole mail arrangement between this city and Cinsequence of the facility and speed of delivery on railroad routes, Government should INTERESTING PROCESS IN MECHANIC Sci- be willing to pay a corresponding price for quantity of mercury is then poured over it, this matter under advisement, and see what

Cor. Colling. - We learn by the Washtable having a slight inclination, until the ington correspondent of the New York Exrendered in the case prosecuted last apring public; and that the verdict fully exoner-" SIGNIFICATION OF IOWA AND OTHER INDIAN stes Col. COLLIER from the charge, and NAMES .- Mr LeClaire, of Davenport, so moreover gives him a judgement against long the Indian Interpreter of the Govern- the United States to the amount of $37, ment, at a late interview, gave the follow- 000! This decision will undoubtedly bo ing interpretation of several Indian names: Iowa-means literally-"Here is the place." affirmed by the Supreme Court, and thus Driven, as were the lowas and Sacs from an innocent and honorable man be fully vinfor us to live unmolested; and so it meas-

The Cleveland Herald says a party "THE RULING PASSION STRONG IN DEATH."—A German woman called a few days since upon Mr. Willard, the City Logan, were riding, and stopped at Rocky Poor Master, and informed him her hus- River for the purpose of enjoying the shade band was dead, and that as God was her and scenery. Miss Logan made a miswitness she had no means to burry him.—

step and fell from a steep bank into the mr. Willard gave her sid; a few hours afterwards she called or sent again that her river where the water was deep. She had child was dead, and that there was no way sunk a second time when a gentleman of to burry it. Again Mr. Willard respond- the party observing her,' plunged into the ed. After a time, it was reported that the water and succeeded in bringing her to woman herself was ill, and upon visiting the shore.

self was in a dying condition, with a child CHOLERA IN CHICAGO.—A letter from clasped to her breast, and on her person Chicago confirms former reports that the was found a belt containing $217 in cholera is creating consternation in that Mr. Willard invested the amount for the flourishing city, suspending business and ments reached 240, the majority of which ruffled every moment, compel her to wear ter color should be the prevailing fashion,

Ba The Milwaukie Wisconsin states Wood.-There is a reaction in the wool that Dr. Wm. Arrison-the supposed gone home. Growers are generally wil-ling to sell at ruling rates for the last few tal, and which killed him and his wife, has